in the case of Colt to his child. When there are so many poor infant children in want, whose honest virtuous parents through life have obeyed every law, human and divine, is it not strange to single this one out for public charity, where both parents openly violated the decencies of society, and where atrocious crimes and deeds of uncommon horror closed the final scene? Is not the proposed plan a bounty in prospect for those who first disgrace their race, and then commit such outrages as are scarcely paralleled in the annals of mankind? The murdered man and his

BROOKLYN BANK .- The case of the Brooklyn Bank against Samuel A. Willoughby, which was so ably argued before the Supreme Court, at their May term, on an appeal from the Superior Court, has recently been decided at Rochester, by a unanimous decision in favor of Mr. Willoughby, reversing the judgement of the Court below. We un derstand that Mr. Willoughby intends immediately to enter a prosecution against the directors of the Bank, to recover all the loss he has sustained on his $50,000 of stock, and damages $30,000, by reason of their misconduct, inattention to the affairs of the Bank, and retaining Corwin as teller. five months, contrary to a resolution to discharge him, passed by the board just before Mr. Willoughby retired from the institution. Markets-Carefully reported for The Tribune. FRIDAY, Dec. 2. ASHES-There are no bills out to-day and no arrivals .-

The demand appears to have fallen off and we hear of only 40 bbls Pots sold at $5 S74, and 33 bbls Pearls at $6 00 -Holders of Pearls continue firm at $5 00, but the demand is not very brisk. Pots are heavy at $5 571.

COTTON-There has been an improvement in demand since yesterday noon, and the sales yesterday reached 1000 bales and to-day about the same amount has been taken mostly for export. Spinners only take small lots for immediate use. The market is still heavy, even at the low rates quoted, which are lower than ever before known, and there appears to be little expectation entertained that the steamer which is now out 13 days will bring favorable advices from the other side. We quote fair Upland 7 a 71; fair N Orleans and Alabama 74 a 71. The Upland Cotton of this year's crop is said to be better than usual, which accounts for the slight preference given to New-Orleans and Alabama this season.

FLOUR-We are able to learn no new feature in the market to-day excepting, if any thing, an increased difficulty in making sales at current rates. Some holders who of necessity must sell, and some who are doubtful of the permanency of the present rates, being anxious to realize, have supplied the market further than the demand called for, and consequently buyers are asking a concession, and probably in some instances sales have been made at 6d off of $5 00. We notice sales of a lot of prime Michigan at $4 374; Ohio is worth $4 874 a 5 00. Troy is held firmly at $5 00, with small sales. The sales generally, as for some days past, are only for actual wants, buyers anticipating a decline when New-Orleans arrives freely. In Southern, there is very little doing and we only hear of a sale of 200 bbls; Georgetown $4 371, time and interest; Richmond City $5 75; Brandywine $5 00; Petersburg, Alexandria, Richmond Country, &c, $475, all nominal, The is no Rye Flour arriving, and it is selling out of store at $3 121 a 3 25, in moderate lots. Buckwheat $2 75 a 3 00, and prime 3 25. Corn Meal $2 56} a 2 69 for Jersey, the latter for prime, and $2.75 for Brandywine bbls; $12.75 a 18.25, cash and 4 mos.

or hhds. The ddmand is quite limited. GRAIN-We have further sales to notice of Wheat, 4000 bushels, at 94 a 95, for the British Provinces. There is not a great deal now offering, and at these rates the demand is not brisk. There is little Corn yet offering excepting Northern, and not a large supply of that. We hear of no sales. The quotations are 47 a 48 for new, and 53, weight, and 56, measure, for old. Rye is yet held by some receivers at high rates, but a lot of 4000 bushels sold te-day at 65, delivered. The market is still free of Barley but a lot of 1860 bushels was resold by a distiller at 55c. Oats, from the light supply, are looking up. We quote River S0 a S1, and Canal S1 a 33. No Southern offering. Shorts and Ship Stuffs, out of store, are quoted at 10 a 12½ and 15. No supplies affort.

HAY-We quote a range of 48 a 60 for the different qualities. The sales are mostly for storing but there is a light shipping demand. LEAD-We notice a sale of 206 Pigs Missouri at $3 So.

TALLOW-A lot of 40,000 lbs Boston rendered sold at 80 for export. At that rate there is a good inquiry.

PROVISIONS-For barrel Provisions there is a steady demand to-day, but we hear of no large sales. We quote new Prime Pork $6 50 a 6 621; new Mess $9 50 a 9 621; old Prime Lower County $6 00; Mess $9 00; old Ohio Prime $5 371 a 550; new Mess Beef $6 25 a 6 50; new Prime S 25 a 3 50; old Prime $275 a $3 00. A sale of 100 bb's old Lower Co. Prime Pork was made at $6 00. Lard is in good demand at 62 a 7c. We notice a sale of 50 kegs City rendered at 8c. Nothing new in Butter or Cheese. A lot of 100 firkins shipping Butter sold at 6 cents. Considerable lots of Cheese

IT Fall Style of Gentlemen's Hats-BIRD corner of Pine and Nassau-streets, has now ready for inspection and sale the Fall Standard Pattern for Gentlemen's Hats

IJ Spencer announces to gentlemen that his arrange ments are now completed for supplying according to pr vious intimation, a FINE FUR HAT at a price ($3 25) which shall render it emphatically the cheapest as well as lowest priced Gentlemen's Fur Hat ever on sale in this city. It is prepared in the same style which characterizes our finest article, and like that article is offered at a price at which it cannot be continued without an unusually rapid sale. The undersigned with all confidence affirms it to be for the gentleman and economist the most desirable Fur JAMES M. ALISTER, 160 Division-st. Hat yet offered. (o20ti) SPENCER, 245 Broadway.

Il Orlando Rish, Fashionable Hatter, 137 Broad way, would inform the geatlemen of New-York that his Fall and Wister style of Hats is now ready for their inspection and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMERICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our climate and manners , he rejoices to perceive that others have seen fit to follow his lead, and that now the following o European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers.

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats at $3 50, and warrants them equal in material, finish, fashish and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city. But he wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are not sold at this price, but at $4 50. These he recommends as equal to may hat sold in New-York at $5 or under, and challenges for them a comparison with any other. Gentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Winter hats and judge of their quality. He is confident that, whether the cheapest of the best fiat is desired, the inquirer will here be satisfied Try him. (s20tf) O. FISH, 157 Broadway. Try him.
